

Major Airline Manufacturer

STEP was instrumental in negotiating an agreement to settle a dispute between the investor owned utility and the manufacturer. STEP represented the manufacturer's interest before the Utilities and Transportation Commission and assisted in negotiating a special agreement that allowed the manufacturer (and only 6 others) to have retail access for power procurement in the State.