

National Mining Operation

When this mining company's special contract was unexpectedly ended early by the investor owned utility, STEP Resources provided consulting services that identified the regulatory process for objecting to the utility's actions. In addition, STEP developed a strategy and performed the analysis to annex the customer into a neighboring municipal's utility system. When completed, the annexation will provide the customer savings of $1 million dollars per year and remove the customer from PUC jurisdiction.